The funeral of the late General Robert Bullock took place at Ocala Friday afternoon from his late residence, and was one of the most largely attended funerals in the history of Ocala. The Masons had the funeral in charge, and Rev. W. C. Lindsay of the Presbyterian church was the officiating minister. The Masons, Ocala Bar Association and Confederate Veterans attended in a body.

A traveling man entered a Tampa hotel Saturday and registered from New Orleans. There was a stampede from the hostelry in question, and the genial drummer was at a loss to observe the manner in which his friends hid under the tables and hiked for the free atmosphere. After he had succeeded in persuading the hotel clerk to come forth from under the desk, whither he retired when he saw the fatal inscription, he informed him that he had not been in the Crescent City in two months, and peace descended on the scene.
